

IN THE MATTER OF : NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
THE LICENSE OF : STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS
SHANE DEGANNES : ORDER OF REVOCATION
_____ : DOCKET NO. 444-05/97-133

At its meeting of May 15, 1997, the State Board of Examiners reviewed information received from the Office of Criminal History Review indicating that Shane DeGannes was convicted in November, 1995 on charges of possession of marijuana for which he was fined $728.00. As a result of such conviction, Respondent was disqualified from public service pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et seq. Respondent did not appeal such disqualification before the Commissioner of Education. Upon review of the aforesaid information, at that meeting the State Board of Examiners voted to issue an Order to Show Cause to Respondent.

The Order to Show Cause was mailed to Respondent by regular and certified mail on July 25, 1997. The certified mail was returned unclaimed. The regular mail copy was not returned. Said Order provided that if Respondent desired to file an Answer to said Order such Answer must be filed within twenty (20) days. Twenty (20) days elapsed without an Answer having been filed by or on behalf of Respondent.

It is therefore ORDERED that the charges in the Order to Show Cause are deemed admitted for the purpose of this proceeding. The issue before the State Board of Examiners in this matter, therefore, is to determine whether Respondent's disqualification, which was predicated on the same drug offense as was set forth in the Order to Show Cause, represents just cause to act against Respondent's licensure pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.6(a)1.

In enacting the Criminal History Review statute, N.J.S.A. 6-7.1 et seq. in 1986, the Legislature sought to protect public school pupils from contact with individuals whom it deemed to be a danger to them. In 1989 the Legislature specifically amended the statute to include all convictions concerning controlled dangerous substances as disqualifying offenses. See, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1b. This amendment was a clear recognition on the part of the Legislature that individuals with such drug convictions should not be permitted to be in contact with school-aged children. The consistent and long standing policy of this State is to eliminate the use of illegal drugs. See, In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of David Earl Humphreys, 1978 S.L.D. 689. To that end, the State and the schools herein have engaged in extensive educational efforts to warn the citizenry of the perils of illicit drugs. See, In the Matter of the Certificate of Barbara Corwick, OAL Dkt. No. EDE 3562-87, State Board of Examiners decision (March 24, 1988) Those who violate this deep-rooted policy, whether by the use of drugs or their manufacture and distribution, endanger the public welfare; they cannot be entrusted with the responsibility of caring for school aged pupils. Accordingly, the State Board of Examiners finds that the disqualification of Respondent from service in the public schools of this State because of his conviction for a drug offense provides just cause to take action against Respondent's license.

That strong policy statement on the part of the Legislature set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1b also offers guidance to the State Board of Examiners as to the appropriate sanction in this matter. An individual whose offense is so great that he or she is barred from service in public schools should not be permitted to retain the license that authorizes such service. Nor should a person who has been disqualified from teaching in a public school be permitted to continue to hold himself out as a teacher. Because the Legislature considers Respondent's offense so significant, the State Board of Examiners in this matter believes that the appropriate sanction for his disqualification is the revocation of his license to teach.

Accordingly, it is therefore ORDERED that Shane DeGannes' County Substitute license be revoked on this 11th day of December, 1997.

It is further ORDERED that Shane DeGannes return his license to the Secretary of the State Board of Examiners, Office of Licensing, CN 500, Trenton, NJ 08625-0500 within fourteen (14) days of receipt of this letter.
